STEGEMAN COLISEUM

Georgia volleyball will play every 2025 home match in Stegeman Coliseum. The volleyball team opened the newly-renovated arena on October 11, 2017, with a match against Tennessee. The most recent major renovation, completed in September 2017, was highlighted by a center-hung video board along with other improvements, including new seats, an LED lighting system, and an all-new sound system.

The University of Georgia set a volleyball attendance record of 8,376 fans at Stegeman Coliseum on Oct. 11, 2024 in a five-set win over South Carolina. The Bulldogs not only set a program attendance record, the number is the most for an NCAA volleyball match in the state of Georgia, topping the previous mark held by Georgia Tech of 5,303 set in 2023.

Christened in 1964 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and, for years, it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

Stegeman has undergone thorough renovations in the last few years, receiving a 21st Century face lift. When fans arrived during the 2017 season, they walked in to the final product following more than $20 million in renovations over the past several years.

That summer, the arena received a massive center-hung video board, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system, and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in the summer of 2016 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and rest rooms and adding 5,000 square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

RAMSEY STUDENT CENTER

Georgia's $40 million Bernard B. and Eugenia A. Ramsey Student Physical Activities Center is where the Georgia Bulldogs volleyball team is housed. One of the nation's largest on-campus facilities for recreation and fitness, the Ramsey Center features a three-court volleyball arena and amenities, all utilized by the Bulldogs for practices. The Ramsey Center encompasses 440,000 square feet - UGA's Sanford Stadium could fit inside the center's more than five-acre footprint - and the variety offered is as vast as the area covered. Four gymnasia, three swimming pools, seven group fitness studios, climbing and bouldering walls, an indoor challenge course, 10 racquetball courts, two international squash courts, two strength and conditioning rooms, four cardiovascular overlooks, a one-eighth-mile indoor track, equipment checkout and Pro Shop, an outdoor equipment rental, and resource center are all available under one roof.

The first volleyball match played in the Ramsey Center was on September 22, 1995. Prior to playing in the Ramsey Center, the Bulldogs' home volleyball matches were held in the Women's Physical Education Building. With a seating capacity of 1,925, the Ramsey Center Volleyball Arena produces a lively environment featuring the Redcoat Pep Band, UGA cheerleaders, and Georgia mascot Spike!

During the summer of 2009, new additions were added to the volleyball area of the Ramsey Center with the program's coaches moving into new offices along with the addition of a theatre-style team video and scouting room, a new athletic training room, a new visitor's locker room and a lounge that features a sitting area and nutrition station.

Named the best recreational facility in the country by Sports Illustrated in 1997, the Ramsey Center is a constant reminder of the University of Georgia's commitment to athletic excellence and the realization of what is required to achieve greatness.

The team video room, located in the coaches office suite, is an ideal location to break down film and hold team meetings.

Murals and wall graphics throughout the facility highlight the history of Georgia volleyball including All-Americans and All-SEC performers.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math, and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide mega bands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

OLYMPIANS MADE HERE

The University of Georgia has a strong tradition of producing world-class student-athletes who go on to compete on the world's biggest stage. Georgia volleyball has featured three student-athletes competing in Olympic volleyball action in its history.

Elizabeth Reid (2010-11) became Georgia's first Olympian to compete in volleyball when she represented her home nation of Great Britain when London hosted the Games in 2012. Alexandra Oquendo (2002-05) played for Puerto Rico in indoor and Britta Buethe (2007) played for Germany on the beach in 2016 in the Rio Games.

Before he became head coach of Georgia volleyball, Tom Black was an assistant coach for the USA Women's National Team in Rio. Team USA went on to win the Bronze medal in 2016.

Former Georgia head coach Jim Iams (1989-99) was an assistant coach from 1985-88 for the U.S. Women's Olympic team and an advisor for the 1992 Barcelona and 1996 Atlanta Games.

Long before the volleyball program competed full time in Stegeman Coliseum, the venue was used for preliminary men's and women's volleyball action during the 1996 Atlanta Games. Stegeman also played host to rhythmic gymnastics. Today, spectators coming to Stegeman Coliseum can see the monument dedicated to the University's Olympic athletes outside of the building, which was erected in preparation for the games. The University of Georgia also utilized Sanford Stadium in 1996, hosting soccer matches. History was made in Athens when the U.S. women's soccer team won the gold medal for the first time.

TOM BLACK

HEAD VOLLEYBALL COACH

21ST SEASON OVERALL (373-216)
NINTH SEASON AT GEORGIA (131-101)

Head volleyball coach Tom Black will be in his ninth season at the helm of the Georgia volleyball program in 2025. Black was named the seventh head coach in the history of Georgia volleyball on Dec. 22, 2016. Black has taken Georgia to three NCAA Tournament appearances, mentored two All-Americans, an SEC Player of the Year, and five Bulldogs have earned nine All-SEC honors.

The 2024 season saw the Bulldogs finish with 12 wins overall and six in SEC play. Despite missing the NCAA Tournament, Georgia finished the season on a high note with wins over Mississippi State and 18th-ranked Florida. The win over the Gators capped amazing careers for All-American and 1,000-Kill Club member Sophie Fischer, 1,000 Dig-Club member Bailey Cox, and setter Clara Brower, who finished her career eighth all-time at Georgia with 3,713 assists. Erykah Lovett played her grad season in Athens in 2024, capping a Double Grand Club collegiate career. Fischer and Lovett collected 2024 All-SEC honors, and Fischer earned her third AVCA All-Region Team appointment.

Fischer and Lovett each signed professional contracts following the season. Fischer played for LOVB Salt Lake in the inaugural LOVB season, while Lovett played for CBL Costa Volpino in Italy.

The Bulldogs had a great academic year in the classroom as 11 student-athletes were appointed to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll and one to the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll. Bianna Moneke and Ceci Gooch were also appointed to the CSC Academic All-District Team. The Bulldogs completed the Spring 2025 semester with a 3.57 GPA and earned the 2025 AVCA Team Academic Award.

On June 24, 2025, it was announced that Black was a member of the 2025 UC San Diego Athletics Hall of Fame class. Black played for UCSD from 1993-96 and was the women's head coach from 2005-09 (115-29 overall).

Georgia appeared in the NCAA Volleyball Tournament for the second straight season, for the first time in nearly 30 years, in 2023 after concluding the season 19-12. Black coached Sophie Fischer to AVCA Second Team All-America status while also becoming just the second Bulldog to be named the SEC Player of the Year. Fischer concluded the season as the nation's highest-scoring middle.

Along with Fischer, Kacie Evans was also named AVCA All-Region in her final season in the Red & Black. Evans concluded her career as one of the best Bulldogs in the history of the program. Evans was an All-American, multi-time All-SEC performer, was a member of the Double Grand Club (1,768 kills, 1,127 digs), and is just one of five in Georgia's 2,000 Point Club.

The 2023 season was highlighted by a pair of top-10 victories. Georgia went to Georgia Tech and took down the No. 10 Yellow Jackets in four sets on Sept. 15. The Bulldogs then swept No. 8 Arkansas at Stegeman Coliseum on Nov. 1. The win notched first time in program history beating two top-10 opponents in the same season and the first time since 1993 the Bulldogs beat two ranked opponents in a season. The win over Arkansas was the sixth-ranked victory in the Tom Black era. The season concluded in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament against Arizona State in Provo, Utah.

The Bulldogs reached new heights in 2022, concluding the season 23-8 overall. 22 regular season wins were the most since 2013. Georgia's 13-5 SEC record was good enough for third-place in the league, Georgia's best finish since 1995 and the most SEC victories in program history. The feat earned Black 2022 SEC Coach of the Year. 2022 was the third season the Bulldogs eclipsed the 20-win mark in six seasons under Black (2017, 2019, 2022). Georgia was picked to finish ninth by the league's head coaches before the season after finishing 12-17 in 2021 and 7-9 in SEC play. The season featured a marquee victory over No. 11 Florida in a sweep in Gainesville.

The season concluded with Georgia's 11th appearance in the NCAA Tournament, drawing eighth-seeded Towson in the opening round. The Bulldogs defeated the Tigers in four sets, Georgia's first NCAA postseason victory since 1995. Georgia fell to top-seeded Texas in the second round in Austin to bring an end to the season.

The 2022 campaign saw Evans become the fourth Bulldog in program history to earn AVCA All-America status, landing a spot on the third team. Junior Fischer was an All-America honorable mention. Evans and Fischer each earned AVCA Southeast All-Region Team and All-SEC honors. It was the first time since 1995 that two Georgia Bulldogs (Hadli Anstine, Nikki Nicholson) earned All-Region honors in the same season. Evans became the first Bulldog to be named a two-time All-SEC player since Valentina Gonzalez in 2009 and 2010.

Additional honors in 2022 included Sage Powell's third appointment to the SEC Volleyball Community Service Team, as well as being awarded the SEC Brad Davis Community Service Award. Meghan Froemming and Bailey Cox also garnered CSC Academic All-District honors in the classroom.

Black and the Bulldogs concluded the 2021 season 12-17 overall and 8-10 in SEC play. Following a tough non-conference slate, Georgia went on to earn conference victories over Texas A&M, Auburn, Ole Miss, and LSU, including series sweeps of Missouri and Alabama. The Bulldogs' eight SEC wins finished eighth in the league in 2021. Georgia's schedule finished 35th in strength of schedule in 2021, one of the toughest among SEC opponents, playing six ranked opponents. At the service line, Georgia continued to shine in 2021, ranking second in the SEC with 1.46 aces per set and 167 total aces, led by Amber Stivrins' 47 aces on the season.

The 2020-21 season featured a conference-only slate of 22 matches. The Bulldogs split the fall portion of the season, going 4-4. A milestone victory came on Nov. 21 in Gainesville, Florida, when the Bulldogs defeated then-No. 5 Florida in four sets. Not only was it the first win against Florida since 2008, it was the first win in Gainesville since 1986, and the first win over a top-10 opponent since the same win against Florida in 2008 when the Gators were ranked No. 8. It became the program's highest-ever ranked win and first over a top-5 opponent.

Georgia concluded the 2020-21 campaign 8-14. Black and the Bulldogs finished the season on a high note, winning three of their last four matches of the season, including taking two against Ole Miss in the final home series. Phoebe Awoleye was tabbed All-Freshman Team by the SEC. Awoleye finished fifth in the league with 1.05 blocks per set. She became the third All-Freshman Team pick of Black's tenure at Georgia. As a team, the Bulldogs' blocking game saw its best performance under Black's guidance in 2020-21, finishing the season with 2.25 blocks per set, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Black guided the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019 since Georgia's previous trip in 2013. Georgia concluded the season with a 20-10 record overall and a 12-6 clip in Southeastern Conference play. It was the second time Georgia eclipsed the 20-win mark under Black. The last time the Bulldogs had a pair of 20-win seasons in three years was 1995 and 1997.

Black was an assistant coach for the United States Women's National Team at the 2016 Rio Olympics, helping guide the U.S. to a bronze medal.

Led by 2019 SEC Freshman of the Year Kacie Evans, the Bulldogs finished third in the league in kills per set (13.83) and hit .232 as a team. All-SEC setter Meghan Donovan dished out 1,271 assists. Donovan, along with Kendall Glover, became the newest members of Georgia's 1,000-Dig Club in 2019. Junior Rachel Ritchie notched her 1,000th kill in 2019, becoming the 18th member of Georgia's 1,000-Kill Club. The season was highlighted by a road victory over No. 12 Kentucky. A six-match SEC winning streak, including the win over the Wildcats, was the longest in league play by Georgia since 2008. Georgia earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and drew Cal Poly at No. 3 Stanford. The Bulldogs took a 2-0 lead on the Mustangs but fell in five sets in the First Round.

Off the court, the Bulldogs were just as strong in the classroom during the 2019-20 year. The team earned its first AVCA Team Academic Award and was recognized by the NCAA in the annual NCAA APR report. Seven members of the team earned spots on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll, and all four members of the freshman class appeared on the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll.

The 2018 season saw the Bulldogs finish over .500 for the second-straight season. The 2017 and 2018 seasons were the first back-to-back winning seasons since 2008 and 2009. Georgia concluded the 2018 campaign with a 15-14 overall record. The season began on a seven-match winning streak capped by a four-set victory over No. 24 Colorado on the Buffs' home court. It was the first win over a ranked opponent since 2013. The non-conference slate ended with a 9-2 record.

In February 2019, Black was named the head coach of the Canadian Women's National Team. Volleyball Canada won the FIVB Women's Challenger in Lima, Peru, in June, qualifying for the Nations League Tournament in 2020. Black stepped down from the position at the end of 2020 to focus on Georgia and the Spring 2021 season.

In his first season at the helm, Black took a Georgia team that had one Southeastern Conference win in two seasons to a fifth-place finish in the league. The Bulldogs concluded the 2017 campaign with a 22-12 overall record and a 10-8 SEC clip. Finishing fifth, the Bulldogs clinched an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), advancing to the semifinal round.

Under Black's instruction, the 2017 team finished second in the SEC in kills per set (13.75), fourth in hitting percentage (.243), and first in aces per set (1.57). In all, the Bulldogs finished in the top four of every offensive category in the conference. In RPI, Georgia made one of the greatest turnarounds from the prior season, jumping 132 spots to 57.

BEFORE GEORGIA

Black, an accomplished collegiate and international coach, was named the seventh head coach of the Georgia volleyball program in December of 2016.

Black came to Athens with 12 years of NCAA collegiate head coaching experience with time at UC San Diego and Loyola Marymount, accumulating a career record of 242-115 after posting six seasons with 20-plus wins.

Working with some of the top athletes in the country, Black was extremely active with the U.S. Women's National Team, working alongside U.S. head coach Karch Kiraly. Black most recently served on the staff at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games as an assistant coach, as the United States garnered a bronze medal.

Black spent seven seasons at Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles, leading the Lions to 127 wins and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2015 after upsetting No. 13 Colorado State and No. 6 Stanford. His team notched back-to-back 20-win seasons in 2014 and 2015. In 2014, the Lions entered the AVCA Top 25 Poll at No. 23 and held a national ranking for five weeks.

During his stint, 21 student-athletes earned All-West Coast Conference honors while he oversaw four AVCA All-America selections and six AVCA All-Region picks. Black saw one of his players earn the WCC Defensive Player of the Year in four of the last six years while also garnering AVCA Region Freshman of the Year in 2014.

Prior to LMU, Black served at the helm of Division II UC San Diego women's team for five seasons. Black went 115-29 with the Tritons and had his team ranked in the AVCA national poll every week for his final four seasons. UCSD ranked as high as No. 2 in 2009 while finishing in the top 10 in two seasons. The 2006 Tachikara/AVCA D-II Pacific Region Coach of the Year, Black coached 20 All-Conference honorees as well as four All-America selections.

Black's involvement with the U.S. Women's National Team culminated in his selection as an assistant coach with the team in March of 2013. Black was with the team at the 2016 Rio Olympics, helping guide the United States to a bronze medal. Black also assisted with Team USA prior to the team winning its first world championship gold medal at the FIVB World Championship in October 2014 while the team went on to win the 2015 World Grand Prix Championship and a Bronze Medal at the World Cup.

Before being named as an assistant within the program, Black spent three summers as a consultant coach as the National Team prepared for the 2012 London Games.

Prior to his time at UCSD, Black spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the men's volleyball program at USC. He also served as the men's head coach at Pierce Junior College and Thousand Oaks High School as well as an assistant for Pierce Junior College's women's team and Royal High School's boy's team.

Black received his bachelor's degree in political science from UCSD in 1996 where he was also a four-year letterwinner, setting numerous hitting records and earning All-MPSF honorable mention honors as a senior in 1996. The California native was Volleyball Magazine's Small College Player of the Year in 1996, while also earning Small College All-America honors that same year.

Black and his wife, Crystal, have two daughters, Kylin and Emerson.

AARON BENNING

ASSISTANT COACH
NINTH SEASON
CAL STATE EAST BAY, 2014

Assistant coach Aaron Benning is in his ninth season with the Georgia volleyball program in 2025. Benning joined the Georgia staff in January 2017 as an assistant coach. Among Benning's many responsibilities in the gym, he also heads up Georgia's recruiting efforts.

Benning's coaching at the service line once again placed the Bulldogs top three in the SEC in 2024, concluding the season with 1.73 aces per set and 190 total on the season. His work on the recruiting trail saw a quartet of top players conclude their careers in 2024, including All-American and 1,000-Kill Club member Sophie Fischer, 1,000 Dig-Club member Bailey Cox, and setter Clara Brower, who finished her career eighth all-time at Georgia with 3,713 assists. Erykah Lovett played her grad season in Athens in 2024, capping a Double Grand Club collegiate career. Fischer and Lovett collected 2024 All-SEC honors, and Fischer earned her third AVCA All-Region Team appointment.

Fischer and Lovett each signed professional contracts following the season. Fischer played for LOVB Salt Lake in the inaugural LOVB season, while Lovett played for CBL Costa Volpino in Italy.

In 2023, Georgia finished second in the SEC with 1.76 aces per set and 199 total aces. Individually, 2023 Second Team All-American and SEC Player of the Year Sophie Fischer finished third in the league with 0.40 aces per set and 72 total aces. Fischer concluded the season as the nation's highest-scoring middle.

In the offseason, Benning's recruiting efforts paid off when the Bulldogs got commitments from Bianna Muoneke (Texas A&M), Erykah Lovett (Tennessee), and Kendal Kemp (Auburn) out of the transfer portal.

Georgia's best-ever season at the service line since Benning's arrival in Athens came in 2022, registering 1.77 aces per set, the second-best in the SEC. The Bulldogs finished 16th nationally and first in the SEC in total aces (212). Already one of the best servers in the SEC, All-American Kacie Evans elevated her serve, registering 46 total aces and a 0.39 set average in 2022, finishing second in the SEC. Amber Stivrins also finished top 10 in the league with a 0.32 clip.

Benning's efforts on the recruiting trail brought 2023 All-America honorable mention Sophie Fischer to Athens. In her first season in the Red & Black, Fischer finished as the top blocker in the SEC and third-best in the country (1.55 blocks/set). Her 183 total blocks were second nationally and finished third in a single season at Georgia.

The Bulldogs' strong efforts on the service line continued to improve in 2021, registering 1.46 aces per set as a team, ranking second in the SEC. Georgia's 167 total aces also ranked second in the league. Stivrins finished the season second in the league with 0.42 aces per set and atop the SEC with a total of 47 aces to her name.

In the 2020-21 season, the Bulldogs concluded the season sixth in the SEC with 1.30 aces per set. Brynn Chandler tallied 25 aces on the season while Evans tallied 22. Middles Sage (Naves) Powell and Phoebe Awoleye combined for 177 kills for the offense. Awoleye picked up SEC All-Freshman Team accolades in 2020.

Georgia's serving game flourished under Benning's tutelage in 2019, finishing in the top three in the SEC for the third-straight season. Georgia concluded the season with a 1.47 aces per set average. Chandler ranked fifth in the league with 0.31 aces per set. Chandler and Evans each tallied more than 30 total aces in 2019.

The Bulldogs appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 2019 for the first time since 2013. It was the second time Georgia eclipsed the 20-win mark, finishing 20-10. The last time Georgia had a pair of 20-win seasons in three years was 1995 and 1997.

In his first three seasons with the Georgia staff, Benning coached the service game to ranking in the top three in the SEC. Georgia led the league in 2017 with 1.57 aces per set, finishing 25th in the country. In 2018, the Bulldogs ranked third in the conference with a 1.48 clip.

The 2017 and 2018 seasons saw Georgia finish above the .500 mark in both seasons, the first time since 2008 and 2009. In 2017, Benning's first season, the Bulldogs made a jump of 132 places in RPI from the previous season to 57.

Benning previously served in the same capacity for three seasons at Loyola-Marymount on Tom Black's staff. Prior to LMU, Benning served as the Director of Sports for City Beach Volleyball Club since 2004, and spent a total of seven years, including three as head women's volleyball coach at Ohlone College.

While at LMU, Benning helped the Lions to two NCAA appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 after upsetting nationally-ranked Colorado State and Stanford in Palo Alto, California. In addition to LMU's NCAA showings, Benning assisted in notching a pair of 20-win seasons. The 24 wins LMU recorded in 2015 were the most for the program since collecting 26 in 2003. That same season, LMU finished third in the West Coast Conference, another best for the team since 2003. Benning saw LMU roll in accolades during his three years, including four AVCA All-America selections, six AVCA All-Region picks, an AVCA Region Freshman of the Year, and 11 All-Conference honorees, along with the Defensive Player of the Year in 2016.

Benning helped City Beach win nine Junior National Medals and over 180 Regional and National Tournaments. Consistently one of the top-25 volleyball clubs in the nation, Benning guided over 155 of his City Beach players into collegiate volleyball programs since 2006. In addition to coaching, Benning was responsible for many of the management and executive functions.

Benning, a graduate of Yerba Buena High School in San Jose, California, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Recreational Management from Cal State East Bay in 2014.

ERIN "EJ" JOHNSON

ASSISTANT COACH
THIRD SEASON
ILLINOIS, 2013

Erin "EJ" Johnson joined Tom Black's staff in January 2023 as an assistant coach. 2025 will be her third season in Athens.

The 2024 season saw Georgia's blocking average rise from the previous season under Johnson's guidance to 2.36 blocks per set. All-American Sophie Fisher concluded her career as Georgia's top blocker, breaking UGA's record with 1.43 blocks per set. She finished her Georgia career third with 488 total blocks and set Georgia's new block assists record with 450. Fischer finished the 2024 season second in the SEC with 1.42 blocks per set.

In Johnson's first season in Athens, she coached Sophie Fischer to AVCA Second Team All-America status while also becoming just the second Bulldog to be named the SEC Player of the Year. Fischer concluded the season as the nation's highest-scoring middle. Fischer finished second in the SEC with 1.32 blocks per set and fourth with 4.13 kills per set. As a team, Georgia concluded the season with a 2.22 blocks per set average.

Johnson came to Athens following a stint as assistant coach for the UC Irvine men's volleyball program, a position she had held since January 2019.

The Anteaters won 43 matches in Johnson's tenure in Irvine. She was the third woman to serve as an assistant coach for the Anteaters' men's team.

In Johnson's first season, the Anteaters led the Big West and finished eighth in the country with a 2.54 blocks per set average. The shortened 2020 season saw UCI register a 2.81 blocks per set clip in 17 matches, the second highest nationally. UCI put up a 2.22 average, good for 12th nationally.

Before landing her first full-time collegiate coaching job, Johnson served as a student assistant coach for the University of Illinois while she completed her degree, graduating in 2013 with a degree in Kinesiology.

Johnson played middle blocker for the Illini from 2009-12. She was a junior on the 2011 Illini team that advanced to the NCAA Championship match. Illinois also made Sweet 16 appearances in 2009 and 2010.

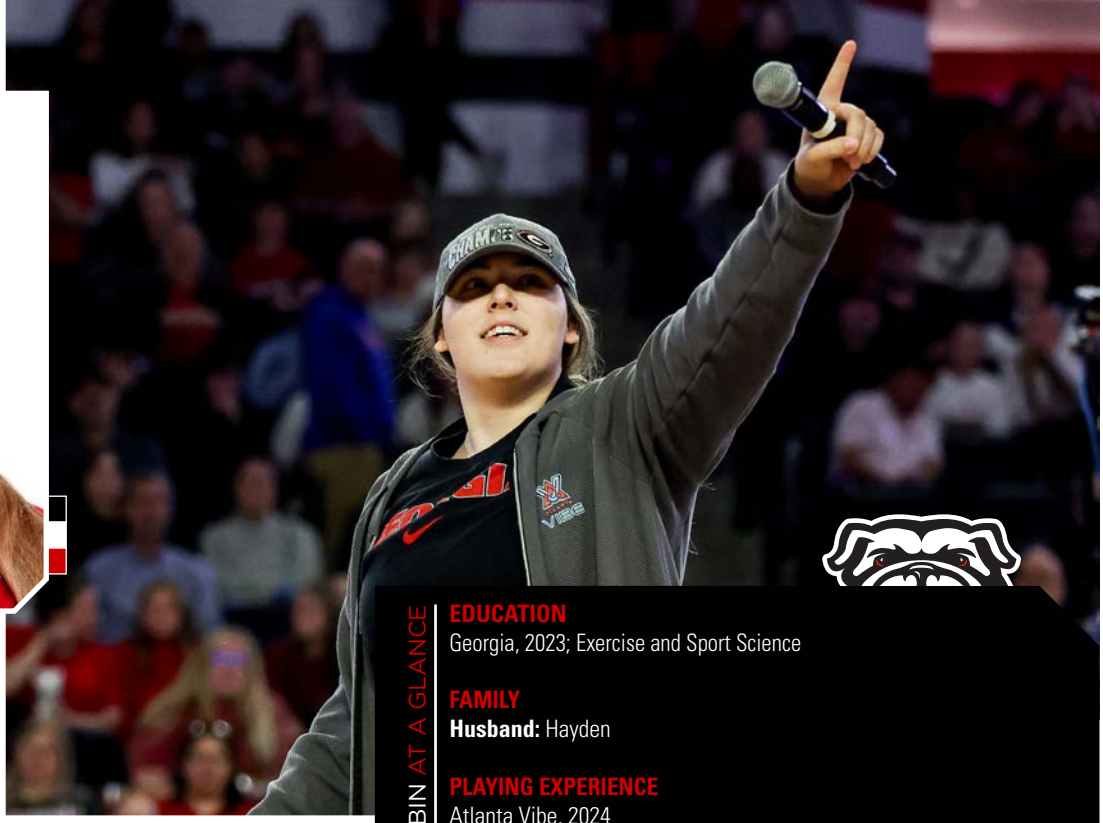
The Crystal Lake, Illinois native played 125 matches over her four-year career and currently ranks sixth all-time in career block assists with 445 and eighth in total blocks (471). She was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team in 2009 as well as Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week, Big Ten Freshman of the Week, and to several all-tournament teams throughout her career. She was also a three-time Big 10 All-Academic honoree.

Following Illinois, she played professionally for Asko Linz Steg in Linz, Austria (2014) and Dresden Sports Club in Dresden, Germany (2016-17), and served as the Director of Volleyball Operations and coach of the boy's program at VC United Volleyball Club in Rockford, Illinois (2017-18).

Johnson is engaged to Sean Stevenson, Senior Associate Director of Sports Communications & Digital Strategy at Georgia. The couple will get married in the Summer of 2026.



KACIE RUBIN

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON
GEORGIA, 2023, 2025

One of the best to ever wear the Red & Black, Kacie Rubin (née Evans) joined Tom Black's coaching staff as a graduate assistant coach for the 2025 season.

In her five-year career in Athens, Rubin garnered 2022 AVCA All-America honors, was a three-time All-SEC performer, earned AVCA All-Region honors, was the 2019 SEC Freshman of the Year, and was the AVCA Southeast Region Freshman of the Year. She became the fifth member of Georgia's 2,000-Point Club (2,057) and is the most recent member of Georgia's Double Grand Club, finishing with 1,768 kills and 1,127 digs. She was a three-time SEC Player of the Week and a five-time SEC Freshman of the Week in 2019.

The Bulldogs appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 2019, Rubin's freshman season, for the first time in six years. In 2022, Rubin helped lift Georgia to an NCAA Tournament first-round victory, the Bulldogs' first since 1995. Georgia appeared in three NCAA Tournaments in Rubin's five seasons.

Rubin broke Georgia's career sets played record (517) and finished fourth in kills (1,768), third in attacks (4,527), fifth in aces (166), and fourth in points (2,057).

Off the court, she was a member of the 2023 SEC Volleyball Community Service Team, appeared on two SEC Fall Academic Honor Rolls, and the 2019 SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll.

Following her amazing career at Georgia, the Wadsworth, Ohio, native signed an undrafted free agent contract with the Atlanta Vibe on Dec. 11, 2023. Rubin was signed to a season contract before the start of the inaugural 2024 season. She played in 11 matches in 2024, appearing in 21 sets, primarily as a designated server. She totaled a pair of aces in 38 serves as a rookie.

Along with her new role on the sideline, Rubin is pursuing her Master's Degree in Nutritional Sciences with an emphasis in Community Nutrition at Georgia.

Rubin married Hayden Rubin on Aug. 9, 2025. Rubin is a former Georgia football walk-on and student athletic trainer.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

DAVID DANTES

BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2007

David Dantes joined the Georgia volleyball staff in 2017, fulfilling the role of Director of Volleyball Operations. Dantes oversees operations both at home and on the road and coordinates team and player analytics for the coaching staff.

In addition to his operations duties in Athens, Dantes has spent significant time on the international volleyball stage with the USA men's national team and the USA men's sitting team as a technical coordinator. Dantes and Team USA won bronze at the 2024 Paris Olympics.

Dantes came to Athens following a six-year stint at the University of California as the Golden Bears' Director of Operations. He served as a volunteer coach during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

The East Bay, California, native added professional experience to his resume when he served on the technical support team for the USA Men's National Team at the 2016 Rio Olympics. His responsibilities included a vast knowledge of statistical and video work during the Olympics.

Dantes' second stint in Berkeley came by way of New Haven, Connecticut, where he was an assistant coach for the Yale volleyball program under head coach Erin Appleman. With his help, the Bulldogs finished 2010 with a share of the Ivy League championship, a 12-2 conference record, and an 18-8 overall mark. Dantes served one season as a volunteer assistant in 2009 before he was promoted to a full-time position.

While serving as a volunteer, he was also the head coach of the Yale women's club volleyball team. The club secured its first league title by winning the Northeast Women's League (NWVCL) championship. Dantes' guidance saw the Bulldogs to their first appearance in the NCVF (National Club Volleyball Federation) Division II National Championship tournament, where they captured the national title.

During his two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at Cal, the Golden Bears made history with their first finish as an NCAA semifinalist. The 2007 squad finished ranked No. 4 in the nation during his first season at Berkeley. In 2008, the team earned a No. 6 finish and reached the regional finals of the NCAA tournament for just the second time in school history.

Dantes earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, with a minor in religion, from Boston University in May 2007. He competed for the Terriers' men's club volleyball team.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT

JERE W. MOREHEAD

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia president on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University established a School of Medicine and completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising $1.45 billion. It also created an Innovation District, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to enhance the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia.

During President Morehead's tenure, UGA has increased its research and development expenditures by over 75%. The University of Georgia ranks No. 1 among U.S. universities for the number of products brought to market based on its research, according to the annual survey by AUTM. UGA has ranked either first or second in this measure for nine consecutive years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. A UGA education is in greater demand than ever, with over 43,000 students enrolled in fall 2024 and nearly 48,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2029.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including "The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business," and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology. He also is a trustee for the Committee on Economic Development and a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

President Morehead is the Immediate Past Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JOSH BROOKS

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

In the spring of 2025, Georgia won four team national championships, tying the school record for most titles in one athletics season. Overall, the Bulldogs have earned seven team national championships, 10 Southeastern Conference crowns and 33 individual national championships since Brooks was named athletics director in 2021.

Georgia finished No. 7 in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup – the program's highest mark in 18 years -- as Brooks was named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year. The Bulldogs have boasted a record-setting student-athlete GPA in each of the last three academic campaigns, set new fundraising marks, and completed 15 capital projects.

In addition to back-to-back football national titles in 2021 and 2022, the women's tennis team has earned six conference championships, a national indoor crown and most recently a NCAA title in 2025; soccer has made the NCAA tournament in back-to-back years for only the second time in program history; both track and field teams finished national runner-up at the 2025 NCAA National Indoor Championships with the women earning the program's first-ever outdoor title, while equestrian earned national titles in 2021 and 2025.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award – the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova – only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown – was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award for tennis.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team. A Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee was also established as Courtney Gay was hired to lead in the department's DEI efforts.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

"TOM BLACK ON the freshman class…

OLIVIA BORGMAN
"Olivia is one of the rare great overall players in an increasingly specialized game. She plays every time she can get her hands on a ball, and it shows. She excels at every skill and if there's one word to summarize her, it's genuine. She's an elite player and person and we're very confident in her future and what she'll bring to our program."

EMMA BRYSON
"Emma was the first one to commit in this class, and it was a truly exciting day for all of us. She's an exceptional athlete and has the ability to be a complete middle. One who can hit in front and behind, and take up a lot of space as a blocker. Emma has a joy for the game that's infectious; she's done everything her coaches have asked of her throughout her high school career, whether it's helped her stat sheet or not, it's always been about the team for her. She's going to do great things here at UGA."

CHLOE ELARTON
"Chloe has clearly established herself as one of the nation's best setters in her age group. Consistent is a great word to describe her. Her work ethic, her attitude, her desire to grow, those things don't change with her. Day in and day out, she competes and gets better, and the results are evident. She's going to do a great job here."

ALEX RICHTER
"Alex is a player that can bring it on both pins and is having another exceptional high school season. She's a resilient kid who's gotten better every year and has consistently played at the highest levels of junior competition. Alex has a tremendously high ceiling as a volleyball player. We cannot wait to get her here and see how good she can become."

KEIRA STEININGER
"Keira comes from a family of coaches, and it shows. Her teams rely on her intelligence and steadiness, and she's phenomenal about making the team better with every contact she makes. She reads the game very well and will compete at the libero spot right away. We can't wait to get her in the gym this spring."
